WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

2 — For the second straight year Maryland opens the season against a top-25 Texas team. Last year, the Terps defeated the Longhorns, 51-41, in Austin. It was Maryland's first win against a top-25 opponent since 2010, and most points scored against a top-25 team in program history. This year's tilt will be played at FedExField, home of the Washington Redskins. Last year's matchup was the highest-rated and most watched college football game on cable that day.

3 — Head coach DJ Durkin is set to begin his third season at the helm of the Maryland football team as he looks to build upon the program's first back-to-back top-30 recruiting classes in team history. Among the new coaches Durkin added in 2018 is offensive coordinator Matt Canada, who most recently served in the same role at LSU.

7 — A year removed from playing the toughest schedule in the country with its opponents compiling an 87-41 (.680) record, the Terps' 2018 slate features seven teams fresh off bowl appearances. Ohio State (4), Michigan (5), Penn State (11), Michigan State (12) and Texas (20) are among Maryland's opponents in Athlon's top-25 preseason ranking.

8 — Maryland's offense returns eight starters from 2017, including its entire offensive line, which combine for 104 career starts (2nd in B1G - Wisconsin). Among the linemen is right tackle Damian Prince, who allowed just eight quarterback pressures last year. Redshirt sophomore Tyrrell Pigrome, redshirt freshman Kasim Hill and junior Max Bortenschlager are set to compete for the starting quarterback job. Pigrome and Hill had their seasons cut short within the first three weeks of 2017 due to injury, as Bortenschlager started eight games.

22 — Last season, the Terrapin defense allowed just 1.6 gains per game of 30-plus yards (22nd in FBS), gave up just 11.5 yards per completion (28th), and just 5.4 yards per play on first down (40th).

97 — Maryland returns 97 percent of its total rushing yards from 2017, including senior Ty Johnson and junior Lorenzo Harrison III, who have combined for 3,134 rushing yards over the last two seasons. A first down machine, Johnson has averaged 7.5 yards/carry on 282 career attempts while posting 14 rushing touchdowns. The Maryland rushing attack has averaged more that 160 yards/g three straight seasons for the first time since 2001-03.

Media Guidelines

Interviews

Media interviews with all Maryland players and coaches must be arranged through the Maryland Media Relations Department. Members of the media may contact Dustin Semonavick (dustin@umd.edu) or Sean Ellenby (sellenby@umd.edu) to arrange interviews with head coach DJ Durkin and players.

Season Practice Policy

Practices, which are normally scheduled for Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, are closed to the media and public. Friday walk-throughs (home and away) are also closed.

Weekly Media Availability

Tuesday: Head coach DJ Durkin's weekly news conference and selected player availability in the press area on the fifth floor of Tyser Tower at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium; Big Ten Football Coaches Teleconference (contact the conference office for access)

Wednesday: Media availability in the press area on the fifth floor of Tyser Tower at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium. The DJ Durkin Radio Show will take place from 7-8 pm every Wednesday during the season.

Thursday: Local media teleconference with head coach DJ Durkin (contact dustin@umd.edu) for access number and code to participate

Saturday: Postgame

 Timing and who will be made available each week will be announced Sunday night or Monday morning on game weeks. Schedule subject to change.*

Postgame Media Availability

At home, Durkin will address the media in Glazer Auditorium of the Gossett Football Team House. Players will follow Durkin. On the road, Durkin and players will address the media at a designated location. The locker room is closed and interviews are not permitted on the field at the conclusion of any game.

Parking for Media Availability

Parking will be available on the concourse of Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium. Enter at Gate E, which is located on the North side of Maryland Stadium on Stadium Drive. Turn right as you go through the gate and park near the rails or parallel with the bleachers. The practice field may be accessed by exiting at Gate E, turning right and walking approximately 150 yards.

Credentials

Applications for season credentials are to be submitted at http://www.sportssystems.com/maryland. The deadline for season credentials is August 18. Credentials for approved applications will be mailed or can be picked up on August 29, the first news conference of the regular season. For outlets requesting overnight delivery of credentials, please supply the Maryland Media Relations Department with a FedEx account number.

Per game credential requests should be submitted to Dustin Semonavick (dustin@umd.edu).

DJ DURKIN

Head Coach

Bowling Green '01 • Third Year at Maryland

DJ Durkin is entering his third season at the helm of the University of Maryland football program in 2018. Durkin doubled the Terrapins win total during his first season in College Park and has excelled on the recruiting trail, bringing in consecutive Top 30 signing classes for the first time in program history.

Regarded as one of the brightest young coaching minds in college football, Durkin was named the 36th head football coach in Maryland history on December 2, 2015. He quickly changed the culture and brought instant energy to the program.

Durkin improved the results on the field as well. The Terps started the 2016 season 4-0 and won five of their first seven games, including a victory over Michigan State.

Durkin guided Maryland to its 27th bowl game all-time when the Terps faced off against Boston College in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl, which was played at Ford Field in Detroit.

After making great strides in 2016, Maryland started off Durkin's second season with a bang. The Terps traveled to No. 23 Texas and defeated the Longhorns, 51-41, in the 2017 season opener. It marked the first victory for Maryland over a ranked foe in seven years. The 51 points scored was the most for a Terps team against a ranked opponent in the history of the program.

An exciting 2-0 start to the year was quickly overshadowed by season-ending injuries to the top two quarterbacks on the roster. While playing statistically the nation's toughest schedule, the Terps ended the year 4-8 with wins over Texas, Towson, Minnesota and Indiana.

Durkin has continued developing professional players during his time at Maryland as a pair of Terps were chosen in the 2018 NFL Draft. Wide receiver DJ Moore, the 2017 Big Ten Receiver of the Year, was taken in the first round by the Carolina Panthers. Moore was the first wide receiver selected in the draft after leading the conference with a single-season Maryland record 80 receptions. Linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr. was also taken by the Panthers in the fifth round of the 2018 draft.

Durkin has also showed his recruiting prowess by signing a consensus Top 20 class in 2017 and a consensus Top 30 class in 2018. Over the past two years, Durkin has signed 17 4-star student-athletes and eight members of the ESPN300. Durkin has also been able to keep the local DMV talent home, inking 16 Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and five Top 10 players from Washington D.C. over the last two years.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Durkin served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, leading a nationally-renowned defensive unit that ranked fourth in the country. Under Durkin, the Wolverines limited opponents to 17.2 points per game in 2015, in addition to shutting out three consecutive opponents – the longest such streak at Michigan in 35 years.

Durkin has also been an outstanding recruiter in his time as an assistant. At Florida, Durkin helped land four straight top-11 recruiting classes and was named Rivals.com's 2012 Recruiter of the Year as a result. In total, Durkin contributed to the impressive recruitment of nine five-star prospects on the defensive side of the ball during that stretch.

As the defensive coordinator at Florida from 2013-14, Durkin led the Gators to consecutive top-15 rankings in total defense with the 15th-best mark in the country in 2014 (329.0 ypg) and the eighth-best (314.2 ypg) in 2013.

Florida's 2014 team finished the year ranked in the top-10 in the nation in yards allowed per play (4.45), yards allowed per rush attempt (3.16) and yards allowed per pass attempt (5.9).

In Durkin's first season as defensive coordinator, Florida finished first in the SEC and seventh in the country in pass defense (171.8 yards per game), sixth in first downs allowed (16.1 per game) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1 points per game), while allowing only 27 touchdowns, the sixth fewest in the nation in 2013.

Durkin's coaching paid dividends at the next level when defensive tackle Dominique Easley was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

From 2010-2012, Durkin served as special team coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida and coached under current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn.

As linebackers coach, Durkin tutored Jon Bostic, who finished his career as a second-team All-SEC selection and was drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears in 2013.

Under Durkin's tutelage, Stanford's defensive ends helped the Cardinal rank 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2007 and 2009.

At Stanford, Durkin helped the Cardinal bring in their highest ranked recruiting class in eight years in 2009.

As a graduate assistant at Notre Dame from 2003-04, Durkin worked primarily with defensive ends and helped develop Notre Dame all-time sack leader, All-Pro NFL defensive end and 2x Super Bowl champion Justin Tuck.

As a player, Durkin starred at Bowling Green as a starter at defensive end and outside linebacker from 1997-2000. He led the team in sacks in 1998 and served as a team captain for two seasons. Durkin was honored with numerous team awards including the Ken Schoeni Award for character and toughness, the Carlos Jackson Award personifying the values of a student-athlete and the Leadership Award.

Durkin played under Gary Blackney at Bowling Green. Blackney was Maryland's defensive coordinator from 2001-05.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Bowling Green in 2001 and his master's degree in educational administration and supervision in 2004.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Durkin and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Abigail, and one son, Luke.

AAZAAR ABDUL-RAHIM

Defensive Backs - Cornerbacks

San Diego State '98 • Third Year at Maryland

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim enters his third season on the Maryland coaching staff in 2018. After two seasons coaching the Terrapin defensive backs, Abdul-Rahim will focus primarily on the cornerback position in 2018.

A former high school head coach with strong ties to the DMV area, Abdul-Rahim has made significant impacts for the Terps on the recruiting trails since his arrival in 2016. He's been key in helping Head Coach DJ Durkin and Maryland sign a consensus Top 20 recruiting class in 2017 and a consensus Top 30 recruiting class in 2018. Over the past two years, Maryland has signed 17 4-star student-athletes and eight members of the ESPN300. Abdul-Rahim was recognized by 247Sports in 2018 as one of the Top 10 recruiting assistant coaches in the Big Ten.

In 2017, Abdul-Rahim was vital in helping the Terps land nine of the Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and three of the top nine players from Washington, D.C. He was recognized by both Rivals.com and 247Sports as one of the Top 25 recruiters nationally for the class of 2017.

Abdul-Rahim has also made an impact coaching Maryland's defensive backs. In 2017, the Terps posted 10 interceptions - the most for a Maryland team since 2003. Under Abdul-Rahim's tutelage, defensive backs JC Jackson, Darnell Savage and Antoine Brooks were all named 2017 Honorable Mention All-Big Ten.

Abdul-Rahim joined the Maryland staff in 2016 after a two-year stint at Alabama where he first served as a defensive analyst before being promoted to the assistant director of player personnel.

A Washington, D.C. native, Abdul-Rahim made his name as the head coach of Friendship Collegiate Academy. After founding the school's football program in 2004, he turned it into a national power, accumulating 62 wins and leading the team to a District of Columbia State Athletic Association championship in 2012. He helped over 100 players earn scholarships to play college football.

Abdul-Rahim also founded "Cover One", a defensive back training academy that has worked with dozens of NFL players.

Abdul-Rahim played two seasons at San Diego State (1997-1998) after a stint at Mesa Community College. After college, the Dunbar High School standout, played for the San Diego Riptide of the Arena Football League.

MATT BARNES

Linebackers/Special Teams Coordinator

Salisbury '08 • Third Year at Maryland

Matt Barnes is in his third year coaching the Maryland linebackers and has added the duties of Special Teams Coordinator heading into the 2018 season.

Barnes has helped a pair of Terp linebackers garner All-Big Ten recognition and he brings a wealth of special teams knowledge, having served as a special teams graduate assistant under DJ Durkin at the University of Florida.

Under Barnes' tutelage, linebackers Jermaine Carter and Shane Cockerille excelled in 2016. Carter led the Terps and ranked third in the Big Ten with 110 tackles, while Cockerille finished just behind Carter, ending the year fourth in the Big Ten with 108 tackles. Both players were named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten.

Carter continued his stellar play in 2017, once again being named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten after ranking tied for fourth in the country with four forced fumbles. As a senior, Carter led the Terps and ranked ninth in the Big Ten with 90 tackles. Carter became just the fifth player since 1969 to lead the Terps in tackles three straight seasons, joining Alex Wujciak (2008-10), D'Qwell Jackson(2003-05), E.J. Henderson (2000-02) and Ratcliff Thomas (1993-95).

Barnes has spent much of his coaching career alongside Maryland Head Coach DJ Durkin, joining him at both the University of Michigan and the University of Florida.

Barnes spent the 2015 season as the defensive analyst at Michigan under the then-defensive coordinator Durkin and head coach Jim Harbaugh. The Wolverine defense ranked first nationally in defensive pass efficiency, third in passing yards allowed, fourth in total defense and 11th in scoring defense. On game days, he served as the primary scouter in the box and contributed to sideline and halftime adjustments.

Prior to Michigan, Barnes served as a defensive and special teams graduate assistant for three years at Florida from 2012-14. He worked directly under the defensive and special teams coordinators, assisting a 2014 Gator defense that ranked 15th nationally in total defense and 10th in defensive pass efficiency.

Florida's special teams unit also achieved immense success during Barnes' tenure, ranking second nationally in kickoff coverage and third in punt returns in 2013. He directly assisted Durkin, who was named the footballscoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year in 2012.

Barnes spent the 2011 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College, where he helped coach all-american quarterback Adam Neugebauer to Division II Quarterback of the Year honors. Barnes' offense led the conference in total offense, passing offense, passing efficiency and first downs. He signed over 25 prospects throughout the east coast, served as the academic coordinator and was involved in all areas of program management.

Barnes began his coaching career in 2009 as the running backs coach at Delaware Valley College, before beginning his first stint at West Virginia Wesleyan in 2010 as running backs coach.

Barnes is a 2008 graduate of Salisbury University on Maryland's eastern shore, where he was elected as team captain by teammates and was a candidate for the Draddy Trophy Award.

CHRIS BEATTY

Assoc. Head Coach/Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers

East Tennessee State '95 • Third Year at Maryland

Chris Beatty is in his third year on the Maryland staff, serving as Associate Head Coach, Co-Offensive Coordinator and wide receivers coach. Beatty played a large role in helping DJ Moore garner 2017 Big Ten Receiver of the Year honors and has been a key recruiter for the Terps.

Under Beatty's guidance, Moore led the Big Ten with a single-season Maryland record 80 receptions in 2017. Moore was one of only three receivers in the country to post 80 receptions, 1,000 receiving yards and eight touchdowns in 2017. Moore ranked seventh nationally in total receptions and his eight touchdowns ranked tied for fourth in Maryland's single-season history

Beatty has also been key in helping Head Coach DJ Durkin and Maryland sign a consensus Top 20 recruiting class in 2017 and a consensus Top 30 recruiting class in 2018. Over the past two years, Maryland has signed 17 4-star student-athletes and eight members of the ESPN300. Beatty was recognized by 247Sports in 2017 as one of the Top 15 recruiters in the Big Ten.

Prior to Maryland, Beatty has prior FBS stops at Virginia (2015), Wisconsin (2013-14), Illinois (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), West Virginia (2008-10) and Northern Illinois (2007).

At Virginia, Beatty oversaw the rise of junior running back Taquan Mizzell, who broke the ACC record for receiving yards by a running back in a season with 721 on his way to third-team All-ACC honors.

Beatty helped guide Wisconsin to an 11-3 record in 2014, including a 34-31 overtime win over Auburn in the Outback Bowl. In 2013, Beatty helped senior wide receiver Jared Abbrederis set the school record for receptions in a season (78) and become just the third receiver in school history to compile over 1,000 receiving yards in a season with 1,081. Abbrederis, who went on to be selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2014 NFL Draft, was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection.

While at Vanderbilt, Beatty helped the Commodores win the 2011 Liberty Bowl, and prior to that, he was part of three straight bowl appearances during his time at West Virginia. His stint with the Mountaineers also included the 2010 Big East championship.

While at West Virginia, Beatty coached running back Noel Devine, who rushed for more than 3,600 yards under Beatty's direction and earned a pair of All-BIG EAST honors.

Eighteen of Beatty's former players have gone on to the NFL, and he also mentored 14 all-conference performers.

A 1995 graduate of East Tennessee State, where he was a standout wide receiver, Beatty played professionally in the Canadian Football League before becoming a successful high school coach in Virginia. A native of Centreville, Va., Beatty led Landstown High School to a 40-2 record from 2003-05 and won a state championship with a team that featured current Buffalo Bills wide receiver Percy Harvin.

Beatty's first coaching job was at Hampton University, where he served as offensive coordinator, while also coaching the quarterback and wide receiver units in 2006. Beatty directed Hampton to the 2006 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs. The Pirates ranked No. 7 in the FCS with an average of 34.7 points per game, with three of Beatty's wide receivers -- Dereck Faulkner, Onrea Jones and Marquay McDaniel -- eventually earning playing time in the NFL.

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

Auburn '99 • 2nd Year at Maryland

Jimmy Brumbaugh joined the Maryland coaching staff as co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2017. Brumbaugh, who had spent the prior four seasons at the University of Kentucky, has established himself as one of the top defensive line coaches in the country. He has also served as an assistant coach at LSU, Louisiana Tech and Syracuse.

While serving as defensive line coach at Kentucky (2013-16), Brumbaugh helped develop a pair of 2015 NFL draft picks in Bud Dupree, a first round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers, as well as Za'Darius Smith, who was chosen in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens. A total of four defensive linemen earned All-SEC honors during Brumbaugh's tenure at Kentucky.

Prior to UK, Brumbaugh's most recent major-college stop was a two-year stint at Syracuse, where he coached defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. The Orange defense showed drastic improvements under Brumbaugh in 2010, moving from 81st nationally in scoring defense to 17th, and 37th in total defense to seventh. Under Brumbaugh's tutelage, defensive end Chandler Jones garnered All-Big East recognition twice and was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009. He took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

In addition to coaching, the native of Keystone Heights, Fla., also has experience in strength and conditioning. Brumbaugh served two seasons (2006-07) as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU, helping the Tigers capture the 2007 national championship. While with LSU, Brumbaugh helped produce 12 NFL draft selections, including five first-round picks.

Brumbaugh got his first coaching role at Jacksonville State as a student assistant as the Gamecocks won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship and a 9-2 record. He spent the 2005 season at Tennessee-Chattanooga as the defensive line coach.

In 2012, Brumbaugh was at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and the strength and conditioning coordinator. Brumbaugh helped lead the Lions to a top-10 national ranking with an 8-2 record and the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line combined for 224 tackles, including 44.5 tackles for loss, 21.5 sacks and seven fumbles forced. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 74.5 rushing yards per game and only 15.3 points per game.

In just one season, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including end Za'Darius Smith at Kentucky. Smith was rated as the nation's No. 1 junior college strong side defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

During his playing days at Auburn, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, gathering 291 tackles and 15 sacks as a nose tackle and defensive tackle. Brumbaugh was named Freshman All-SEC in 1995, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and first-team All-SEC in 1997. He helped the Tigers earn the 1997 SEC Western Division championship and played in three bowl games, winning two.

After his collegiate career ended, Brumbaugh signed a free-agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000. He also played in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

Brumbaugh graduated from Auburn with a degree in health and human performance. He is married to the former Kelly Jones. They have two sons, Legend and Nash.

ANDY BUH

Defensive Coordinator

Nevada '96 • Third Year at Maryland

Andy Buh, who joined DJ Durkin's staff in the spring of 2016, is now in his third season as defensive coordinator for the Terps.

Buh, who previously served as the defensive coordinator at Stanford, Nevada and Cal, came to Maryland from the University of Kentucky, where he served as the outside linebackers coach in 2015 and was promoted to also serve as special teams coordinator. Durkin and Buh were on the same staff at Stanford from 2007-09.

Buh (pronounced same as "boo") has 20 years of coaching experience and has helped engineer major turnarounds at Stanford and Nevada. His teams made four consecutive bowl appearances from 2009-12 and he's sent numerous players to the National Football League.

Buh helped guide a Maryland defense that ended 2016 tied for third in the Big Ten with 37 sacks. The Terps finished strong, compiling 15 sacks during the final three games of the season.

Buh's defense allowed just one 300-yard passer during his first season. Maryland allowed only 212.3 passing yards/game in 2016, marking just the second time from 2008-2016 that a Terps team achieved the feat.

In 2017, Buh's defense intercepted 10 passes - the most for a Terps team since 2013. At the end of the season, defensive back Antoine Brooks, Jr., linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr., defensive back JC Jackson and defensive back Darnell Savage, Jr. were all named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten.

While only at Kentucky for one season, Buh made an immediate impact. The Wildcats allowed just 198.1 yards per game through the air, ranking fifth in the SEC and Top 30 nationally in passing defense. Kentucky was also stingy in the red zone during Buh's tenure, ranking fourth in the conference and 14th nationally by allowing opponents to score just 75 percent of the time. The Wildcats also forced nine fumbles in 2015, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Buh also coached at the University of California, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2013. The Golden Bear defense was ravaged by injuries that year as 16 players from the team's preseason two-deep were sidelined for a total of 109 games. A highlight was the performance of defensive lineman Deandre Coleman, who earned third-team All-Pac-12 honors and currently plays for the Miami Dolphins.

Buh was the linebackers coach at Wisconsin in 2012 and the UW defense ranked in the nation's top 25 in several statistical categories. The Badgers were 15th in the nation in total defense (322.6 yards per game), 17th in scoring defense (19.1 points per game), 22nd in pass efficiency defense and 24th in rushing defense. Wisconsin was even better during the regular-season Big Ten contests, allowing just 18.3 points per game to rank second in the league.

Individually, Wisconsin linebacker Mike Taylor had 123 tackles and ranked 25th in the nation in total stops. Linebacker Chris Borland received All-Big Ten honors. Borland played for the San Francisco 49ers and Taylor was on the reserve squad for the Seattle Seahawks.

Prior to Wisconsin, Buh was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada in 2010-11. In his first season, Buh helped lead Nevada to arguably the greatest season in school history with a 13-1 record, tying for the Western Athletic Conference championship and defeating Boston College in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Nevada ranked 31st in the nation in scoring defense (21.4 ppg) and 18th nationally in rushing defense at 120.3 yards per game. The Wolf Pack rated 24th nationally in sacks with 35 QB takedowns, 2.5 per game. Defensive end Dontay Moch had 22 tackles for loss, leading the WAC and rating 10th nationally with 1.57 TFL per game. Moch was a third-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals and currently plays for the Atlanta Falcons.

The Wolf Pack went 7-6 in his first season and played No. 22-ranked Southern Mississippi in the Hawaii Bowl, limiting the nation's No. 15 scoring offense to 13 points and 125 yards below its season average. Nevada was led by first-team All-America defensive tackle Brett Roy, who had 18.5 tackles for loss, pacing the WAC and ranking 12th nationally with 1.4 TFL per game. Included were 10 quarterback sacks, with Roy ranking second in the WAC and 13th in the country at 0.77 per game.

Buh's success came after inheriting a unit that had ranked 96th and 91st nationally in total defense in 2008 and '09, respectively, the two seasons before his arrival. In his two years at Nevada, the Wolf Pack was 54th in the country in total defense in 2010 and 52nd in 2011.

Buh also was part of a major turnaround during his term at Stanford. He was linebackers coach in 2007 for a team that had gone 1-11 the year before. The 2007 squad improved to four wins, including one of the greatest upsets in college football history -- as a 41-point underdog, the Cardinal scored a 24-23 road victory at Southern California. Buh was promoted by then-head coach Jim Harbaugh to co-defensive coordinator for his final two seasons.

In his first year as co-defensive coordinator, Stanford ranked 11th nationally in quarterback sacks and improved to five wins. Three Cardinal defenders were named All-Pac-12. In 2009, Stanford played in the Sun Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 2001, and had four players receive All-Pac-12 honors, including NFL All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman.

A native of Escondido, Calif., Buh played linebacker for two seasons at Palomar College, where he helped the team to a share of the 1991 Junior College Grid-Wire national championship as a freshman. He was a junior-college All-American as a sophomore.

Buh went on to play at Nevada in 1993-94 and was a part of a Big West championship team as a senior. He graduated with a degree in physical education and began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Orange Glen HS, in 1996.

Buh coached linebackers at San Diego State at 2002-05. During his time with the Aztecs, Buh coached four players who went on to the NFL, including Kirk Morrison, a first-team All-American, two-time Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year and three-time All-MWC selection. Morrison went on to play eight years in the NFL. Buh coached one season at Fresno State before going to Stanford.

Buh's wife, Kelly, is a native of New Albany, Ind. They have two sons, Luke and Logan.

MATT CANADA

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Indiana '93 • First Year at Maryland

Matt Canada, who was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2016 and served an integral role in conference championships at Northern Illinois and Wisconsin as offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach, begins his first season as the Maryland offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach ahead of the 2018 season.

Canada brings more than a decade of experience as a highly successful offensive coordinator and a proven track record of developing quarterbacks to Maryland.

Most recently, Canada served as the offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach at LSU. During the 2017 season, LSU quarterback Danny Etling finished with 16 TD / 2 INT and the Tigers finished the season No. 1 nationally in fewest turnovers. The Tigers won six of seven SEC games down the stretch, earned a trip to the Citrus Bowl, and tallied a 9-4 overall record.

Among the quarterbacks developed by Canada are former NC State quarterback and New England Patriots third-round NFL Draft pick Jacoby Brissett who threw for 43 TD / 11 INT over a two-year period under Canada, first team All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish (Northern Illinois), two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten quarterback Ben Chappell (Indiana), second team All-Big Ten quarterback Kellen Lewis (Indiana) and fifth-round NFL Draft pick Nathan Peterman (Pitt) who threw for 27 TD / 7 INT in a season when the Panthers broke a number of school records on offense.

In Canada's one season at Pitt, the Panthers averaged 42 points per game which ranked No. 10 in the nation and was a school record. The Panthers led the nation in red zone touchdown percentage at 82% and scored at least 28 points in all twelve regular season games including a 43-42 road win over No. 3 ranked Clemson. At one point, the Pitt scored at least 36 points in seven straight games. In the regular season, the Pitt allowed just 9 sacks which were the fewest of any Power 5 program in the nation. Running back James Connor rushed for more than a thousand yards, scored 16 touchdowns, and earned first-team All-ACC honors. Pitt finished the regular season 8-4 and earned a trip to the Pinstripe Bowl.

At NC state, the Wolkpack finished third in the ACC in scoring offense in 2015 by averaging 33 points per game. NC State scored the most points (41) in the regular season against national championship game participant than any other team. The Wolkpack defeated UCF in the 2014 St. Petersburg Bowl and earned a trip to the Belk Bowl in 2015.

Prior to joining the NC State staff, Canada served an integral role in leading Wisconsin to a Big Ten championship and earning a trip to the Rose Bowl. The Badgers won the conference championship by defeating Nebraska 70-31 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. During that season, the Badgers finished No. 12 nationally in rushing offense and running back Montee Ball won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Ball also earned first team AP All-American honors while wide receivers Jared Abbrederis and left tackle Rick Wagner earned consensus first team All-Big Ten honors. Tight end Jacob Pedersen was name the Big Ten tight end of the year while center Travis Frederick also earned first team All-Big Ten.

Prior to joining the Wisconsin staff, Canada led the Northern Illinois offense to one of its most successful seasons in school history as the offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach. The Huskies won the MAC championship and were crowned champions of the GoDaddy.com Bowl. Northern Illinois finished in the Top 12 nationally in scoring offense, total offense, and rushing offense. Quarterback Chandler Harnisch earned MAC MVP honors and was recognized as honorable mention All-American by SI.com.

Prior to joining the Northern Illinois staff, Canada served as the offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach at Indiana (2007 – 2010) and quarterbacks / passing game coordinator (2005 – 2006), and quarterbacks coach (2004). The 2007 Hoosiers scored a school record 412 points under Canada's leadership. Three of his quarterbacks at Indiana (Ben Chappell, Kellen Lewis and Blake Powers) held at the time the top three spots in single season touchdowns, yards, and completion percentage. In four years as the Indiana offensive coordinator, the Hoosiers offense produced an All-American wide receiver (James Hardy), three first team All-Big Ten receivers, an All Big-Ten left tackle and a second team All Big-Ten quarterback (Lewis). Lewis and former Big Ten MVP Antwaan Randle El are the only Indiana players to record 40 passing touchdowns, 6,250 passing yards, 8,000 total yards, 525 completions and 975 attempts in their careers.

In his first stint as the Northern Illinois offensive coordinator, the Huskies climbed as high as No. 12 in the AP poll. During the 2003 season, Canada was instrumental in the development of second team All-American running back Michael Turner who later enjoyed a terrific NFL playing career most notably with the Atlanta Falcons.

Canada broke into coaching as a student-assistant at Indiana. He later served as a graduate assistant at Indiana from 1994-1995 and coached at Butler University from 1996-1997.

Canada earned his B.A. in Business (1993) and M.A. in Sports Administration (1995) at Indiana University.

Canada is from New Palestine, Indiana. He is married to the former Erin Buchanan and has one daughter, Tori, and a son, Chris.

CHUCK HEATER

Defensive Backs - Safeties

Michigan '75 • First Year at Maryland

Chuck Heater brings over four decades of college football coaching experience to College Park as he joins the Terps staff in 2018 as the safeties coach. The 2017 season marked Heater's 42nd as a college assistant coach.

Heater, who has spent the past five seasons as Marshall's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, has coached three National Championship teams (Notre Dame, 1988; Florida, 2006 and '08) and has been part of 30 bowl games with a 24-6 record. The programs he's coached have a combined record of 344-164-4 (.676) and he's been part of 14 10-win seasons.

Maryland Head Coach DJ Durkin and Heater worked together at Florida during the 2010 season in which the Gators defeated Penn State in the Outback Bowl. Heater served as the co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach for a defense that ranked ninth nationally in total defense and 12th against the pass. While on staff with Durkin, Heater helped mentor a pair of Gator defensive backs, Ahmad Black and Janoris Jenkins, who garnered All-America honors.

Maryland is Heater's 13th coaching stop as he's also worked at Colorado, Colorado State, Florida, Marshall, Northern Arizona, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Temple, Toledo, Utah, Washington, and Wisconsin. He has twice been nominated for the Frank Broyles Award (2006, 2011) as the nation's top assistant coach.

Before coming to Maryland, Heater worked as Marshall's defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 2013-17. The year before he arrived at Marshall, the Herd ranked 123rd (second last in the FBS) in scoring defense (43.1 ppg). Heater's arrival provided immediate dividends, as Marshall slashed its points allowed per game to 22.9. The 20.1-point improvement was the best by a major college team since Central Michigan improved 20.5 points from 1997 to '98.

In his first three seasons with Marshall, Heater's defenses lowered their points-against ranking from 31st (22.9) in 2013, to No. 18 (21.0 ppg) in 2014 to No. 10 (17.8 ppg) in 2015. And in 2014 and '15, the Herd had back-to-back Conference USA Defensive Players of the Year in linebackers Neville Hewitt (2014) and Evan McKelvey (2015).

Over those three Herd seasons – 10-4, 13-1, 10-3, with three bowl wins and a final national ranking in 2014 – Heater's defense had five All-C-USA first team picks. Counting his five total seasons as Marshall's defensive coordinator, he boasted seven second team selections and 18 honorable mentions.

In 2017, Marshall led Conference USA in rushing defense (121.2). It ranked in the top 25 nationally in: defensive touchdowns (eighth, 4), red zone defense (10th, .732), scoring defense (17th, 19.9), rushing defense (19th, 121.2), red zone touchdown percentage allowed (23rd, .512) and tackles for loss (24th, 7.2).

Heater served as the co-defensive coordinator at Florida in 2010 and assistant defensive coordinator in 2008 and 2009. He helped win two national titles during his six-year stint in Gainesville (where he coached alongside Holliday from 2005-07) and another in 1988 while serving as the secondary coach at Notre Dame.

In 2012 at Temple, Heater's unit produced the Big East Rookie of the Year in linebacker Tyler Matakevich, who became the first freshman in school history to record at least 100 tackles (101). The Owls ranked third in the league in sacks with 2.27 per contest. In 2011 in the Mid-American Conference, Temple dominated the league, ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense behind national champion Alabama and LSU. The Owls recorded two shutouts.

Heater, 63, has been associated with six National Coaches of the Year in his playing and coaching career (Barry Alvarez, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz, Meyer, Bill McCartney and Bo Schembechler) while mentoring 21 NFL Draft selections and 25 NFL players as well as numerous all-conference picks, including Jim Thorpe Award winner Chris Hudson (Colorado).

Under his guidance, the Gators recorded 116 interceptions, the most in the SEC and the second-best total in the nation during that time frame. In 2010, Heater led the Gator secondary to a No. 3 ranking in SEC pass defense and SEC pass defense efficiency, while ranking second in the conference with 17 interceptions.

In 2009, Heater helped guide a Florida secondary that ranked first in the SEC, the first time since 1988, and second in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 152.8 yards per game. Heater helped turn around a defensive secondary that was one of the nation's worst in 2007 to rank among the best in 2008.

Heater served as the recruiting coordinator for the 2006 and 2007 Florida classes that ranked among the top two nationally, including No. 1 by several services. The 2008 class was ranked in the top five by several services.

Heater worked alongside Meyer at four different major college programs. In 1986, Heater coached the secondary at Ohio State when Meyer was a graduate assistant. They coached together again at Colorado State from 1991-92, where Heater was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach and Meyer as the receivers coach. Heater was also a member of the Utah coaching staff in 2004, when the Utes went 12-0.

He spent five years at Washington (1999-2003), and during his first season at Notre Dame (1988), Heater was a member of the coaching staff that led the Irish to a 12-0 record and the 1988 national championship. He also served as the secondary coach at Notre Dame (1988-90), Ohio State (1985-87) and Wisconsin (1982-84). Heater coached the running backs from 1977-78 and the secondary at Toledo from 1979-81. He began his collegiate coaching career in 1976 at Northern Arizona, coaching running backs.

Heater was born Oct. 10, 1952 in Weston, W.Va. He grew up in Tiffin, Ohio, and received his bachelor's degree in education from Michigan in 1975. A three-year letter winner at running back, Heater earned All-Big Ten second team honors as a junior and was named honorable mention as a senior. Finishing his playing career as UM's No. 5 career rusher, with 1,981 yards on 406 carries (4.9-yard average), and he won the school's Fielding Yost Award for the most outstanding academic and athletic performance by a senior (1975).

During his three varsity seasons at Michigan, the Wolverines went 30-2-1 and won outright Big Ten championships or shared the league title every season.

Heater was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the 10th round with the 241st overall selection in the 1975 NFL Draft.

Heater and his wife, Deborah, have three children: Emily, Andy, and Adam. Emily is married to USF defensive tackles coach Sean Cronin and the couple has two daughters, Caitlin and Grace, and a son, Joseph. Andy was a defensive tackle at Washington in 2005 and is now an Airborne Army Ranger. He and his wife, Lauren, have two daughters, Sloan and Quinn. Adam also played tight end at UCLA.

BRYAN STINESPRING

Offensive Line

James Madison '86 • First Year at Maryland

Bryan Stinespring was hired to coach Maryland's offensive line in January 2018. After spending 26 years on Frank Beamer's staff at Virginia Tech, Stinespring helped James Madison win the 2016 FCS National Championship.

Stinespring spent two seasons at James Madison, leading the Dukes to a 28-2 record and back-to-back appearances in the FCS national title game. After working his first season as the tight ends coach, he transitioned to offensive line coach in 2017. He additionally served as the team's run-game coordinator. The Dukes ranked third nationally in first downs (325), ninth in completion percentage (64.9%), 15th in scoring offense (34.4), 22nd in pass efficiency (142.46 rating), 25th in rushing (194.3) and 30th in total offense (419.0) in 2017.

He coached a pair of players to All-America status in left tackle Aaron Stinnie and right tackle Jahee Jackson. Stinnie, who was voted Touchdown Club of Richmond Division I Offensive Lineman of the Year, was named to five different All-America teams, earning First Team status on four of them. Jackson, who was a Second Team All-CAA pick, earned a spot on the HERO Sports Sophomore All-America Team.

In his first year with the program, the JMU offense set several Colonial Athletic Association records, including marks for scoring (700), rushing offense (4,125), total offense (7,612) and first downs (380). JMU led the country in first downs while ranking second scoring (46.7), fourth in third-down conversions (50%) and fifth in rushing average (275.0).

Stinespring's tight ends group accounted for over 400 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns last season, led by First Team All-CAA selection Jonathan Kloosterman. Kloosterman made 24 receptions for 322 yards and a team-best seven touchdowns. During JMU's run to the national championship, he made six receptions, five of which resulted in touchdowns.

A native of Clifton Forge, Va., Stinespring returned home to his alma mater after spending the previous 26 years on Frank Beamer's coaching staff at Virginia Tech (1990-2015).

In his time with Tech, the program won seven conference championships and advanced to 23 consecutive bowl games. The Hokies earned invitations to eight BCS bowl games, including the national championship game in the 1999 season.

Stinespring served as the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach from 2012-15 after an 11-year stint as offensive coordinator from 2002-12. He was primarily the team's tight ends coach for his final 10 seasons (2006-15) in Blacksburg. He was along the recruiting coordinator from 1994-2001.

Prior to his elevation to offensive coordinator, Stinespring was assistant head coach for one season (2001). He managed the offensive line for eight years (1998-2005) and handled tight ends for the first time for five seasons (1993-97). After serving as a graduate assistant for two years, Stinespring was hired into his first full-time role under Beamer as director of sports programs in 1992.

Stinespring guided Bucky Hodges to All-ACC accolades. In 2015, Hodges made 40 receptions for 530 yards and six touchdowns as he was named a Second Team All-ACC honoree by the coaches and Third Team member by the media.

During his rookie season, Hodges was a USA Today Freshman All-American and Third Team All-ACC selection from the media after accumulating 45 catches for 526 yards and seven scores. The seven receiving scores set Virginia Tech's single-season record for TDs by a tight end. The duo of Hodges and Ryan Malleck combined for 721 yards and nine touchdowns in 2014.

While Stinespring was the offensive coordinator, David Wilson broke VT's single-season rushing record in 2011 en route to being named ACC Player of the Year and becoming a first-round draft pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. His offense that season featured the top two receivers in school history and Jacobs Blocking Trophy recipient Blake DeChristopher.

In 2010, the offense flourished behind ACC Player of the Year Tyrod Taylor, who quarterbacked the Hokies to the ACC championship and a berth in the Orange Bowl before entering the NFL. The year prior, Ryan Williams was the key piece in Virginia Tech's 14th-ranked rushing offense nationally. In 2007, he had four offensive players taken in the NFL Draft, including Duane Brown in the first round.

During his time with the offensive line, Stinespring coached Jake Grove to the 2003 Rimington Trophy as the center became just the third consensus All-American in program history. He was also the first center taken in the 2004 NFL Draft.

After taking over the line in 1998, he helped send two linemen, Derek Smith and Dwight Vick, on to the NFL. The line helped the Hokies set new rushing benchmarks in the BIG EAST during the 1999 and 2000 seasons as Tech advanced to the national title game during the 1999 season. In 2002, the line cleared the way for Lee Suggs and Kevin Jones, who combined for over 2,100 rushing yards.

Stinespring spent his first four years coaching at the high school level. After a three-year stint at Lexington High School (1986-88), he coached Patrick Henry High School for one year (1989) before heading to Virginia Tech as a graduate assistant.

Stinespring was a walk-on player for the Dukes in the early 1980s. He graduated from JMU in 1986 and earned his postgraduate degree from Virginia Tech in 1992.

He is married to the former Shelley Franklin and the couple have a son, Daniel, twin daughters, Carolina and Olivia, and another daughter, Ella.

DAVE BUCAR

Tight Ends

Washington & Jefferson '09 • First Year at UMD

Dave Bucar was hired as Maryland's Tight Ends Coach in 2018. Bucar worked under current Terps Offensive Coordinator Matt Canada at both LSU and Pitt.

During the 2017 season, Bucar served as an offensive analyst at LSU. Tiger quarterback Danny Etling finished with 16 touchdown passes and only two interceptions that season. LSU went 9-4 during Bucar's stint and earned a trip to the Citrus Bowl. The Tigers finished the season No. 1 nationally in fewest turnovers.

A graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh twice, in 2012 and from 2015 to 2016, Bucar worked with the Panthers offensive line. In 2016, Pitt ranked No. 10 nationally in points per game and No. 8 in redzone touchdowns with 45. The Panthers averaged 446.8 total yards per game (225.1 rushing, 221.7 passing).

Bucar began his coaching career at Tiffin University where he served as the offensive line coach in 2013 and 2014.

Bucar played offensive line at the Division III level at Washington & Jefferson, and was a two-time All-Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) first-team selection.

JAFAR WILLIAMS

Running Backs

Maryland '03 • First Year at Maryland

Jafar Williams, a 2003 Maryland graduate, returns to his alma mater as running backs coach in 2018. He comes to College Park after serving as wide receivers coach at Rutgers the past two seasons.

In his first season in Piscataway, Williams mentored Jawuan Harris to 39 receptions for 481 yards, which led all Big Ten freshmen. Andre Patton, who went on to sign an NFL contract, led the unit with 13.9 yards per catch and five touchdowns.

A native of Philadelphia, Williams was hired as running backs coach at Purdue in Jan. 2013. In 2015, he helped Markell Jones break the Boilermaker's freshman rushing record with 875 yards on 168 carries, finishing eighth overall in the Big Ten with 72.9 yards per game. Jones also led the team with 10 rushing touchdowns (11 overall) for 66 points as a true freshman. In 2014, Akeem Hunt tallied 949 yards on the ground to place eighth in the league (79.1/game). He then went on to sign an NFL contract with the Houston Texans.

Williams joined Purdue from his running backs position at Kent State where in 2012 he coached one the nation's top rushing tandems in Dri Archer (third round pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers) and Traylon Durham. Under Williams' direction, the duo combined to rush for 2,745 yards and 30 touchdowns in 14 games. Archer, who averaged nine yards per carry, led Kent State with 1,429 yards rushing on 159 carries, while also hauling in a team-high 39 receptions for 561 yards with four touchdowns and returning 16 kickoffs for 591 yards and three additional scores. He was named an Associated Press, Walter Camp, ESPN.com and Sporting News All-American following the regular season. The team ranked No. 18 nationally in rushing offense (225.79/game).

The 2012 season saw the Golden Flashes earn an 8-0 conference record to earn the MAC East Division title. Overall, the team went 11-3 and appeared in the national polls at points during the year.

Prior to working two seasons at Kent State, Williams spent 2010 as the special teams quality control assistant at Northwestern. Before that, Williams was the wide receivers coach at Howard in 2009.

Williams spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons on the staff at Illinois State. As the wide receivers coach for the Redbirds, he mentored first team All-Missouri Valley Conference honoree Eyad Salem.

Prior to his tenure with ISU, Williams was the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Moravian for two years. In 2005, Moravian claimed the first ECAC championship in school history.

Williams played wide receiver for the Terrapins from 2000-03 and ranks Top 20 all-time at Maryland in both career receptions (90) and career receiving yards (1,301). He averaged 20.07 yards per catch in 2002, the third most in Maryland history. Williams, who caught a 64-yard touchdown for the Terps in the 2002 Orange Bowl, received a Bachelor of Science degree in health and human performance from Maryland in 2003.

After college, Williams spent time with the Washington Redskins before beginning his coaching career at Moravian.

Maryland 51, #23 Texas 41

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Tyrrell Pigrome passed for two touchdowns and ran for another before leaving with an injury and Maryland stunned No. 23 Texas 51-41 Saturday, spoiling new Longhorns coach Tom Herman's debut.

"I'm proud of our guys for how they hung tough and fought through adversity," said head coach DJ Durkin. "There was a lot of adversity in that game. We started not only the game, but not only our season with a pick six going the other way and just there wasn't, no one flinched on the side. There wasn't anyone who panicked, flinched. It was like, 'Okay, let's keep going about our business,' and that was kind of the mentality throughout the whole game. So very proud of that, happy about that. That's a big step for us."

Pigrome had to be helped off late in the third quarter after twisting his knee, but freshman Kasim Hill came in and led two crucial fourth-quarter touchdown drives.

Maryland (1-0) led 27-7 in the second quarter, and then held off a Texas rally to snap a 17-game losing streak to ranked opponents.

The Longhorns scored three non-offensive touchdowns: an interception return and blocked kick return by Holton Hill and a 91-yard punt return by Reggie Hemphill-Mapps. Texas had its same old problems, giving up a special teams touchdown, missed field goals and a defense that was physically battered all game and give up big plays.

Junior running back Ty Johnson totaled 132 yards on 12 carries (11.0 avg), marking his third straight 100-yard game. Wide receiver DJ Moore also had a huge day, racking up 133 yards and a touchdown on seven catches.

The Terps pounded Texas on the line of scrimmage with an impressive running game and rolled up 263 yards rushing in a huge road win for second-year coach DJ Durkin.

Maryland 63, Towson 17

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - For an encore to its upset win at Texas, Maryland lit up the scoreboard with a scoring display unlike any in the past 63 years.

D.J. Moore scored three touchdowns, true freshman Kasim Hill excelled in his starting debut and Maryland got two long TD runs from Ty Johnson in a 63-17 rout of in-state foe Towson on Saturday.

The Terrapins (2-0) scored nine touchdowns and amassed 534 yards in offense to sustain the momentum created by their season-opening 51-41 victory against the then-No. 23 Longhorns.

The 63 points were the most scored by the Terps since they crushed Missouri 74-13 in 1954. It was the first time since 1951 that Maryland reached the 50-point mark in successive games, and the first time in school history it opened the season with two straight 50-point games.

Two touchdown passes from Hill to Moore and a 74-yard run by Johnson put Maryland in front 21-0 after nine minutes, and the offense never let up.

"We came out and really started right the way we wanted to ," second-year coach DJ Durkin said. "Kasim did a great job taking the job down the field."

Hill took over for injured starter Tyrrell Pigrome in the third quarter against Texas and completed his only three passes. He started 8 for 8 in this one and was 13 for 16 for 163 yards before watching the fourth quarter from the sideline.

Johnson's 46-yard touchdown run in the third quarter made it 35-7 and enabled him to become the fourth player in Maryland history to reach the 100-yard mark in four straight games. He finished with 124 yards on only five carries, a whopping 24.8-yard average.

The Terrapins outscored Towson 21-0 in the third quarter, the last TD coming on an end-around by Moore in which he broke four tackles on his way to the end zone.

UCF 38, Maryland 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Maryland wide receiver DJ Moore hauled in eight receptions for 83 yards and a touchdown, but Maryland (2-1) suffered its first loss of the season, falling to UCF, 38-10, at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The injury bug continued to take a toll on Maryland's quarterback position, as true freshman Kasim Hill left the game in the first half due to injury. Hill made his first career start against Towson in releif of Tyrrell Pigrome, who tore his ACL in the season-opener against Texas.

Third-string quarterback Max Bortenschlager completed 15-of-26 passes for 132 yards and a touchdown in the effort.

Moore's touchdown grab was the 13th of his career, moving him into a tie for 5th all-time at Maryland with Darrius Heyward-Bey and Giulian Gary.

Moore's big day wasn't enough as UCF (2-0) racked up 428 yards in total offense, including 250 rushing yards.

Sophomore running back Lorenzo Harrison III paced the Terps ground attack, rushing for 48 yards on 10 attempts.

Senior Josh Woods led the Terps defense with seven tackles, while Shane Cockerille and Tino Ellis each had two pass break-ups.

Maryland 31, Minnesota 24

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - Ty Johnson rushed for 130 yards and a 34-yard touchdown run with 1:10 to play to lift Maryland to a 31-24 victory over Minnesota on Saturday.

Max Bortenschlager completed 18 of 28 passes for 154 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score for the Terrapins (3-1, 1-0) to secure his first career victory as the starting signal caller. Lorenzo Harrison III added 75 yards rushing and Maryland racked up 262 yards on the ground against a Minnesota defense that was ranked No. 1 in the country against the run.

The Golden Gophers rushed for just 80 yards.

DJ Moore caught eight passes for 90 yards and a touchdown for Maryland. The score marked his 14th career touchdown reception, drawing him even with Minnesota Vikings star Stefon Diggs for fourth on Maryland's all-time receiving touchdown list.

Johnson, meanwhile, eclipsed the 100-yard rushing barrier for the third time in four games to open the season, and fifth time in his lsat six games.

Bortenschlager squeezed a throw in between two Gophers defenders on fourth-and-11 from the Gophers 31 in the first quarter. DJ Turner made a leaping catch for a 22-yard gain, setting up Bortenschlager's 7-yard draw for a touchdown to get Maryland on the board.

He came up big again in the fourth quarter on third-and-goal from the 4, rolling to his right and hitting a wide-open Jake Funk in the flat for a 24-17 lead. It was the first time an opponent has scored against Minnesota's defense in the second half this season.

The Gophers tied the game midway through the fourth quarter when Shannon Brooks scored with four minutes to play, but Bortenschlager gave Maryland its ninth third-down conversion of the game at the Minnesota 39 and Ty Johnson burst through the line and went untouched for the touchdown to seal the victory.

#10 Ohio State 62, Maryland 14

COLUMBUS - 10th-ranked Ohio State secured a 62-14 victory over visiting Maryland on Saturday evening at Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes jump to 5-1 (3-0 B1G) on the season with the win, while the Terps move to 3-2 (1-1 B1G).

Junior Ty Johnson provided a standout play for the Terps in the first quarter, returning a kickoff 100 yards to make it 14-7 with 9:40 remaining. Johnson became the first Terp with a kick return for touchdown since Will Likely took one 100 yards to the house against Iowa on October 31, 2015.

Maryland's defense and special teams delivered some more highlight plays in the opening half, including a blocked field goal from senior Chandler Burkett to spoil a nearly four-minute drive from the Buckeyes. Burkett would later recover his third career fumble in the second quarter, after senior Josh Woods forced the ball out of the hands of OSU running back J.K. Dobbins.

Freshman Javon Leake notched his second career touchdown in the game, scampering 20 yards to the end zone for the rushing score.

Ohio State entered the game with the top offense in the Big Ten, and the Buckeyes capitalized on opportunities throughout the game to secure win.

Northwestern 37, Maryland 21

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- DJ Moore became just the seventh player in Maryland history to record 200 yards in a game, posting 210 yards receiving and two touchdowns, but it was not enough as the Terps fell to Northwestern 37-21 Saturday. Maryland now moves to 3-3 on the year and 1-2 in the Big Ten, while Northwestern stands at 3-3 and 1-2 in conference play.

Moore's electric playmaking ability was on display yet again at Maryland stadium, as the junior notched a career-high 12 catches for a career-best 210 yards through the air. The Philadelphia, Pa. native became just the seventh player in Maryland history to eclipse the 200-yard receiving mark in a game, and the first player to record 12 catches since Torrey Smith caught 14 balls for 240 yards against NC State in 2010.

Moore's first touchdown in the first quarter put Maryland ahead 7-0, before the Wildcats responded with a field goal and touchdown to take a lead in the second quarter.

Sophomore quarterback Max Bortenschlager would total three touchdowns on the day, tossing two to Moore and another 20-yard strike to Taivon Jacobs in the third quarter. Bortenschalger would finish with a career-high 255 yards through the air on the afternoon.

A 21-point second quarter would propel Northwestern to a 24-14 lead at half, before adding in 13 more points in the second half to seal the victory.

#5 Wisconsin 38, Maryland 13

MADISON, Wisc. - Maryland running backs Ty Johnson and Lorenzo Harrison III combined for 147 yards rushing, but the Terps were unable to upset No. 5 Wisconsin on Saturday, falling to the Badgers, 38-13, at Camp Randall Stadium.

Johnson rushed for a team-high 83 yards on 16 carries while Harrison posted 64 yards on the ground and also caught four passes for 21 yards. Senior Taivon Jacobs led Maryland with five receptions and 45 receiving yards.

Wisconsin (7-0, 4-0 B1G) rushed for 215 yards, including 126 from freshman running back Jonathan Taylor.

Maryland (3-4, 1-3) possessed the ball for much of the first quarter, but a Wisconsin pick-six early in the opening frame gave the Badgers a lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Midway through the third quarter, Terps quarterback Max Bortenschlager connected with Jacobs for a 10-yard touchdown strike that cut the Wisconsin lead to 28-10.

Senior kicker Henry Darmstadter then converted on a 45-yard field goal, his second of the day to get Maryland within two scores. The Terps would get no closer the rest of the way. Sophomore Antoine Brooks and senior Jalen Brooks led the Terps with 10 tackles each. Senior Josh Woods recorded an interception and Brett Kulka forced a fumble that Darnell Savage recovered.

Maryland 42, Indiana 39

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Up and down the field they went, Indiana and Maryland in a duel to see which team would outlast the other.

After accumulating 828 yards and 53 first downs, attempting 78 passes and running 153 plays, the Terrapins and Hoosiers finally walked off the field Saturday after a game that lasted nearly four hours and ended with Maryland celebrating a 42-39 victory.

Bortenschlager threw two touchdown passes, Jake Funk ran for a pair of fourth-quarter scores and Maryland outlasted Indiana to keep the Hoosiers winless in the Big Ten.

Maryland (4-4, 2-3) trailed 33-28 before rallying to snap a three-game losing streak. The comeback began with an 82-yard kickoff return by Javon Leake, and Funk put the Terrapins in front for good with a 1-yard touchdown with 14:56 remaining.

Funk scored again from the 1 with 10:14 left after Bortenschlager connected with DJ Moore for a 44-yard completion to the Indiana 17.

The Hoosiers had a punt and an extra point blocked and yielded that game-changing kickoff return to Leake. The defense couldn't handle the fleet-footed Terrapins, who got 98 yards rushing from Ty Johnson and 77 pivotal yards receiving from DJ Moore.

Safety Darnell Savage, Jr. set up a touchdown with an interception and scored on a punt he blocked .

Early on, Indiana dominated. The Hoosiers moved 75 yards on their first possession, taking a 7-0 lead on Ramsey's 34-yard touchdown pass to Cobbs.

Maryland's opening drive ended on its second play -- an interception by Tony Fields. Ramsey followed the turnover with a 23-yard pass to running back Cole Gest, who bulled through a potential tackler on his way to his first career touchdown.

Rutgers 31, Maryland 24

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Maryland junior running back Ty Johnson scored a rushing and receiving touchdown for the first time in his career, but Rutgers mounted a fourth quarter rally to top the Terps, 31-24, Saturday afternoon at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Maryland (4-5, 2-4 B1G) held a 24-17 lead at the start of the fourth quarter, but Robert Martin scored on a 10-yard run on the first play of the final stanza to tie the game.

Rutgers (4-5, 3-3 B1G) used a Gus Edwards 23-yard touchdown catch with 7:30 remaining to take a lead it wouldn't relinquish.

The Terps drove down the field late looking to tie the game behind the play of quarterback Ryan Brand, who replaced an injured Max Bortenschlager during the final drive of the game.

Brand led a 16-play drive that got the Terps down to the Rutgers 15, but Scarlet Knight cornerback Isaiah Wharton broke up a fourth-down pass to DJ Moore in the corner of the end zone.

Moore, who has caught a pass in 30 straight games, finished with eight receptions for 75 yards. Senior Taivon Jacobs posted career-highs in catches (7) and yards (97).

Sophomore running backs Jake Funk and Lorenzo Harrison III tied for the team lead in rushing with 61 yards each. Harrison had a two-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter that gave the Terps a 17-14 halftime advantage.

No. 21 Michigan 35, Maryland 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Brandon Peters threw two touchdown passes, Chris Evans ran for two scores and No. 21 Michigan (8-2, 5-2 B1G) topped Maryland, 35-10, Saturday afternoon.

Sophomore Ryan Brand thew for 136 yards and a score in his first career start for the Terps (4-6, 2-5 B1G). A walk-on, Brand began the season as the team's fifth-string quarterback, but was forced into action due to injury.

In the second half, Maryland scored on a 20-yard field goal by Henry Darmstadter and a 10-yard pass from Brand to Taivon Jacobs. Jacobs caught eight balls for 92 yards.

Running backs Ty Johnson and Lorenzo Harrison III combined for 24 carries for 148 yards. Maryland outgained the Wolverines 340 to 305.

Before the second quarter was halfway over, Michigan had a 28-0 lead thanks to Peters' passing. Peters threw touchdown passes of 33 yards to Zach Gentry and 3 yards to Sean McKeon. Henry Poggi and Evans ran for scores. Evans, who scored from a yard out in the second quarter, added a 17-yard run late in the fourth quarter.

No. 22 Michigan State 17, Maryland 7

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Max Bortenschlager threw for 121 yards as No. 22 Michigan State held off Maryland in the snow, 17-7, on Saturday.

The Spartans (8-3, 6-2 Big Ten, No. 17 CFP) rushed for 271 yards, and that was about the only way they could move the ball. Quarterback Brian Lewerke was 2 of 14 for 20 yards, and one of his completions was a shovel pass late in the third quarter.

Maryland (4-7, 2-6) wasn't much better through the air until the final period. Bortenschlager finished 13 of 25 for 121 yards. He was taken out of the game in the third quarter but came back strong at the end.

"I was proud of Max, coming back in the fourth. We were able to throw the ball and move the ball a little bit," coach DJ Durkin said. "We had some chances and we didn't execute when we needed to."

It was raining before the game, and by halftime, the teams had to deal with snow in addition to consistently windy conditions. There wasn't any real snow accumulation on the field, but both teams had problems passing. Lewerke, who threw for 400 yards in back-to-back games earlier this season, wasn't going to be the man to lead this victory.

Michigan State took a 7-0 lead with a 2-yard run in the first quarter, and scored on a 25-yard run in the second.

No. 12 Penn State 66, Maryland 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Wide receiver DJ Moore hauled in eight catches for 100 yards en route to breaking Maryland's single-season reception record, but the Terps fell to No. 10 Penn State, 66-3, on Saturday afternoon.

Moore finished the season with 80 catches, breaking the Maryland single-season record on his sixth catch of the game. The record had previously been held by Geroy Simon (77) since 1994.

Moore also finished the season with 1,037 reception yards, becoming just the third player in Maryland history to reach the 1,000 yard mark, joining Marcus Badgett (1992 – 1,240) and Torrey Smith (2010 – 1,055).

Penn State's Trace McSorley threw two touchdown passes and ran for a score to help the Nittany Lions improve to 10-2 overall and 7-2 in Big Ten play.

Junior Ty Johnson led Maryland (4-8, 2-7 B1G) with 70 rushing yards on just eight carries. Johnson finished the season with 1,592 all-purpose yards – a mark that ranks seventh in Maryland single-season history.

Senior Jermaine Carter, Jr. led the Terps defense with 11 tackles. He ends the season with a team-high 90 tackles, marking his third straight season leading the team in the category. Carter finished with 329 tackles in his career.

Maryland honored its 19 seniors in a pregame ceremony.

More on Moore: DJ Moore ends his junior season with 146 career catches – a mark that ranks fifth in Maryland history. His 2,027 career reception yards makes him just the fifth player in Maryland history to achieve 2,000 career receiving yards. Moore's eight touchdowns this season rank tied for fourth in Maryland's single-season history. He ranks fourth in Maryland career history with 17 touchdown catches.
